FORMER HOSTAGE | FREEDOM AWARD RECIPIENT

Audiences are moved by Josh's poignant keynote presentation. Through his personal experiences guests cry, laugh, and learn to overcome their personal trials. The need of resilience is an important tool for all to learn and master and that's what we do together.

As a former hostage Josh has experienced the lowest of the low, and for that reason can connect to all types of audiences where life experiences have become too much for one to handle. On another note because of the harsh conditions which he had to endure his testimony on positivity demonstrates the importance of being positive in all situations.

Josh and his wife Thamy are currently in the process of writing their book. Their story has appeared on the following news and talks shows "Today", Daily Mail, TIME, Miami Herald, Washington Post, New York Times, Fox National, Deseret News and numerous more. He was also invited to the Oval Office with President Donald Trump.
